CHINESE NEW YEAR

Chinese New Year is a two week Spring festival celebrated for over 5,000 years in China. The San Francisco Chinese New Year celebration originated in the 1860's during the Gold Rush day and is now the largest Asian event in North America as well as the largest general market event in Northern California. The celebration includes two major fairs, the Chinese New Year Flower Fair and Chinatown Community Street Fair. All the festivities end with the Chinese New Year Parade.

CINCO DE MAYO

Cinco de Mayo is a holiday that is celebrated annually in Mexico and the United States of America on 5 May. Contrary to what one might think, the birth of the holiday is due not to the Mexican population but to the Mexican-American community of California; subsequently grew in popularity extending to the entire country. During the celebrations are used placards with the words "Cinco de Mayo", whereas high schools organize special events. Commercial interests have meant that Cinco de Mayo is today an important advertising Mexican products and services, with an emphasis on drinks, food, and music.
